The event brought together over 200 participants from Madhubun's sales team across the country, as well as members from the editorial team. The conference began with a welcome address by Business Head Mr. Naveen Rajlani and an introduction of the editors to the all-India sales team. The editorial department provided a briefing on new products, highlighting their features and training the team on digital content. Regional heads shared updates on initiatives in their regions and discussed how they had positively impacted business. A gala night was held with a retro/hippie theme, where everyone participated and performed enthusiastically. The event also included region-wise awards for outstanding performance and recognition of new team members' achievements. The conference was brought to life by the presence of energetic leaders Mr. Naveen Rajlani and MD Mr. Himanshu Gupta, who kept the team engaged and motivated throughout the event.
